Change is part of life.

When God created, change began. The cosmos is in a state of continuous growth and development. We are only aware of a small portion of what lies at the edges of the universe, which is expanding all the time. While men and women have looked to the stars since the beginning of humanity, we have no idea of what (or who) is in our known galaxy, much less the ones not yet discovered.

Archeologists and scientists of all scopes and specialties have a long way to go before they can say they know more than just a small amount about the evolution of the species homo sapiens. While each discovery reveals more insight into early humanity, there is a lot we may never know. Should you look at paintings and photos from the 1800's and the 1900's, you can see changes in people because of better nutrition and work conditions. Current technology allows us to see the impact, positive and negative, of the interaction between humanity's development and the environment. Look at the areas of evolutionary and technological growth that have happened just in our life-times!

We must always realize that any type of change involves some type of exchange similar to, or actually is, life and death. Cells in our bodies die every moment, just as others come to life. From the moment of conception through the moment of our death, our body, our intellect, our emotions continue to develop and change. The environment around us, religious, social and physical, has an impact on us as we grow and mature. Over the last three years, St. Luke University Parish has been part of my growth and development. I hope that I have had some input into yours.

May God bless us all as we continue our journey of life and faith!

SCRIP

Summer is a busy time for celebrations (weddings, birthdays, family gatherings, etc.). Can't make a celebration? Use shop with scrip to send an e-certificate anywhere in the country. All you need is the email address of the recipient. Go to www.shopwithscrip.com, place your order, pay for it using presto-pay, include a personal message, and shop with scrip does the rest. You can even place your order and schedule to have it sent months from now. It is a great way to get everyone taken care of at one time.
